0 of 0 review helpful Excellent series for academic settings By E Burton I teach refugees and am looking for writing for my students that will teach them real world basics of writing I loved the TRIO 1 writing for use with them but the second level is more for academic development rather than just practical real world skills So I wouldn't use this book in a community ministry type setting but I can see that this woul Trio Writing creates academic success through the gradual development of key writing techniques and strategies The Readiness Unit provides fundamental writing tools for beginning students while online practice provides essential skills support In the main units students learn to apply practical grammar and vocabulary models turning their ideas into successful writing About the Author Alice Savage and Colin Ward are well respected in their field
