By Freda Mishan, Ivor Timmis : Materials Development for TESOL (Edinburgh Textbooks in TESOL EUP)
Materials Development for TESOL (Edinburgh Textbooks in TESOL EUP):

Materials are at the very centre of language teaching and understanding what goes into creating them is an essential part of a language teacher's professional development. Offering a practical introduction to the fundamental principles of materials development in TESOL, this textbook introduces you to a wide range of theoretical and practical issues in materials development to enable you to make informed and principled choices in the selection, evaluation, and adaptation. About the Author: Freda Mishan is Lecturer in TESOL at the University of Limerick. Ivor Timmis is Reader in ELT at Leeds Metropolitan University.
